

What if our career at Delta is suddenly threatened?

We care for our passengers and company, but who will care for us if something unfortunate happens?

Sometimes bad things happen to good Flight Attendants.

Having a Voice means our side of the story will be objectively heard and decided by a neutral third party. Delta Corporate doesn't have the final word.

Having a Voice means a fair process must be followed, guaranteed by our contract.

Having a Voice means the end of arbitrary and unjustified discipline.

Having a Voice means having rights.

On the worst day of our life, we will have someone at our side.
