Flight Attendants

From 2001–2013, pre-merger Continental Flight Attendants' average salaries rose from about $40,000 to more than $60,000 under an IAM contract. That's about 50%.

From 2001–2013, a 13 year long span, our average salaries only increased from about $40,000 to just above $47,000. That's a paltry 18%.

What's worse, when adjusted for the cost of living, our average salaries actually decreased by 11%.
